

Appraisal & Valuation on Machinery

Machinery Inspection Service

ABOUT THE SERVICE

Appraisals and valuations of used machinery are often required for both shipping requirement and business purposes. Unknown circumstances may affect the value of used machinery and result in loss of income. Conflicts of interest with financial or insurance companies will also lead to biased valuation reports.

TÜV Rheinland offers machinery appraisal and valuation services in the areas of used machinery performance, quality and safety, as well as depreciation calculation. Our assessments take into account the various regulations so that your machines' defects or downtime are minimized. Our third-party reports and approvals are internationally recognized.

MACHINERY APPRAISAL & VALUATION

Our assessments are performed in the following areas:

- Accounting Requirements
- Asset Transfer or Redeployment
- Asset Sale or Purchase
- Bankruptcy Requirements
- Business Sale or Split
- Insurance Requirements
- Legal Requirements or Litigation
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Other purposes
